PRESIDENTS REPORT

If we look back over this last year, this was our fourth year of competition at the Alexander Park ground. Our main concern at the start of the year was consideration of what adjustments we may have to make to our competitions if Equestrian Australia, or more particularly, Dressage NSW, introduced restrictions relating to the management of the Hendra virus. Fortunately commonsense prevailed, after a lot of lobbying from concerned horse owners, and competition has proceeded as normal, but with a heightened awareness of our need to be diligent and aware of health issues, especially as we attract horses travelling from northern areas of the state.

Also at the beginning of the year we became aware of changing circumstances at Alexander Park grounds, as a huge pile of dirt appeared, taking up considerable parking space for horse trucks and floats. This made it obvious that we need strong representation on the Grounds Committee, a subsidiary of Port Stevens Council, to monitor issues relating to the use of the grounds and have input into the management of the grounds. Again, between our July competition and our September Championships, a fenced area was constructed, for use of Pony Clubbers, which has encroached on warm-up space and changed access to the space for arenas. It is essential that we have committee members who can represent our club's views on the Grounds Committee; it would be very helpful to enlist committee members who live locally, in order to facilitate strong representation as Treasurer Chris Sullivan and Vice-President Joyce Laidler live some distance away. Management and preparation of the sand arenas is an issue also referred to the Grounds Committee; it would be very useful to have a local member who could take on responsibility for taking action to improve maintenance of these arenas.

We started the year financially "in the black" according to the treasurer, and have maintained that position at year's end, despite a couple of competitions where costs have just exceeded income. Costs of competitions have increased with the direction from Dressage NSW to standardise reimbursement for judge's expenses. We have also moved to accommodate judges travelling long distances at the Newcastle Airport "Mercure", which has made 8:00am starts to competitions more possible and long drives more attractive to our A-Level judges, especially, but has increased costs. We have moved to increase the cost of competition entries into 2017 in order to cover these increased costs; this brings entry fees into line with other local dressage clubs, so we still remain attractive to competitors.

Thanks to Secretary Ruth Byrne, we have achieved our goal of improving the efficiency of the scoring office. Excluding interruptions to the scorers in the office on the days of competition has required the posting of front-of-office personnel to manage questions from competitors and judges, and some discipline to keep interference away from the computers. This allowed a good workflow to develop, with results being posted within half-an-hour of the completion of competitions. Many thanks to Ruth, Chris Sullivan, Suzy Laidler and Kerry Sullivan for their great efforts in bringing this about.

Thanks must go to Joyce and Suzy Laidler for continuing to manage competition entries through Nominate, and to compile draws which accommodate riders with multiple entries and have encouraged entries from beginning riders up to senior FEI levels. This year has seen an increase in number of divisions to include Juniors, Young Riders, Open Amateur Riders and Ponies at higher levels. This has added complexities to the scoring process, and has also brought an awareness of the implications of this in the management of club point scores and annual awards. Kerry Sullivan has managed the point score this year and has been persistent in working to clarify information to competitors relating to club awards. This is one area where we hope to advertise requirements of entries to encourage members to strive to achieve HVDA yearly recognition of their achievements. The contribution of Di Stanley in chasing up competitors to serve as pencilers at competitions, and Kylie Murray-Miller for gear stewards, and Belinda Wall for maintaining membership records are essential in the running of the club. We are also fortunate to have enlisted Tammy Hodges to update the website and Kerry Sullivan to manage a dedicated Facebook page for us.

In this, our fourth year at Alexander Park, we have seen an increasing number of competitors attracted to our competitions. We look forward to continuing to attract competitors to our six competitions per year. These competitions are run by a small committee of volunteers, largely at the expense of those committee members not being able to compete themselves. More members willing and able to help on the day, would allow more flexibility in the office and around the grounds.
