PRESIDENTS REPORT:

Thanks to all those who turned out to make our HVDA Championships such a successful event. The horrible winds of the Saturday disappeared, but the clouds were threatening at the start of Sunday morning. The drizzle became quite steady rain between 10 and 11am, but then the clouds lifted and allowed riders to dry out in windless warmth for the remainder of the day. Entries were high, but a number of no-shows left a few gaps in the draw; understandable with the unsettled weather the previous week. Our judges were very supportive, coping with a couple of pencilers running late.

Many thanks for those who responded to calls for helpers during the day, to ensure that classes ran smoothly.

We had hoped to use the sand arenas on the day, but they were not able to be prepared in time, so the 7 arenas were set up on the grass, where the grounds stood up to the usage without deteriorating to affect competition. Thank you to the scoring team who provided a steady stream of results and allowed winners and place getters to be promptly acknowledged, with ribbons and prizes from sponsors awarded throughout the day. Results were posted on-line by Sunday night – very much appreciated by judges, riders and all interested parties!

Many thanks to the sponsors, especially those who set up marquees to showcase their products to both riders and supporters.

I personally was delighted with the informed comment and friendly banter around the clubhouse.

It would be lovely to see you all at our Member's T-shirt competition to end the year on Sunday, November 20.

It is a Closed Restricted competition (Member's only!) ...but you can become a member for the day for a very reasonable fee!! Might be worth it to get in another competition, if the weather allows for some regular preparation!

Look forward to seeing you there; Sunday November 20.

Christmas nibbles will be an added attraction!

Regards ,Margaret Warwick
